

An Address Confidentiality
Program Helping Victims
Become Survivors

What is Safe at Home?

A free state-sponsored program that allows survivors of domestic and sexual violence, stalking, and trafficking to keep their address confidential.

Provides participants a legal substitute address, mail forwarding service, and confidential voter registration.

Actual physical address of participants will not appear on public records.

An Address Confidentiality
Program Helping Victims
Become Survivors

To apply or find out more:

Website: SafeAtHome.iowa.gov

E-mail: SafeAtHome@iowa.gov

Phone: 515-725-SAFE (7233)

Or contact an advocate program:

IA Coalition Against Domestic Violence

800-770-1650 (24-Hour Helpline)

-or-

IA Coalition Against Sexual Assault

800-770-1650 (24-Hour Helpline)

