Absentee Voting in Safe at Home

To ensure your safety is maintained during the voting process Safe at Home participants must vote by Absentee Ballot. Below is information you need to know about the absentee process. If you vote at the polls on Election Day your address will be a public record which is not a safe option.

- Absentee Request forms are valid for one calendar year- expiring December 31st of each year regardless of when it was turned in to our office.
- Absentee voting is the safest form of voting for Safe at Home participants and the only way to vote while staying off public records.
- Voting process will be handled by the Secretary of State's Office and not your County Auditor.

Return Absentee Ballot Request Forms to:

Iowa Safe at Home
